

Are You Ready to?
"Be The Change You Want To See In The World."

Join us in a

- One-day interactive training on Peace Organizing &
- an evening viewing & discussing the use of social change videos.

The Kansas City American Friends Service Committee is holding a peace organizing training for AFSC Interns and Fellows and we have room for additional interested young adults wanting to learn about how they can help create a more just and peaceful world.

Friday, October 21

From 6:00-9:00pm (introductions, videos, discussion...)

Saturday, October 22

from 9:00am to 5:30pm (training and discussion)

at The AFSC office / 4405 Gillham Rd., KCMO

Come learn and share your experiences and skills in non-violent social change. Sessions will include

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Principles & Techniques Of Non-Violent Social Change• Best Practices: How To- Organize Events / Campaigns; Recruiting; Facilitating Meetings... | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Media Training• Strategic Planning• Finding and creating Peace Resources |
|--|--|

RSVP to Ira at iharritt@afsc.org or 816 931-5256 to request a place at the training.
Lunch will be provided (email any special dietary needs).

The American Friends Service Committee is committed to social justice, peace and humanitarian Service. Its work is based on the Quaker belief in the worth of every person and faith in the power of love to overcome violence and injustice. Since 1917, AFSC has worked to reduce domestic and international inequalities and eliminate the root causes of poverty, injustice, and war. In 1947 it was awarded the Noble Peace Prize.