Potluck and Politics

They’re Everywhere! They’re Everywhere!

You can’t check social media, turn on the TV, or pick up the newspaper without seeing or hearing presidential candidates pushing their agenda.

At AFSC we think we’ve heard enough from the candidates.

It’s time for the candidates to hear us.

“Hey Senator..., Hey Governor..., what are you going to do to get the prison-industry out of the business of making immigration policy?”

“Hey Secretary..., Hey Dr...., Do you support the use of for-profit prisons?”

Join us for our Potluck and Politics on June 10th from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Friends House Lawn, 4211 Grand Avenue, as we enjoy delicious dishes, learn how to practice the art of birddogging (Rain site: Inside Friends Meeting)

Trivia question: What is Birddogging?

Birddogging is when someone walks with a person and goes where they go, asking a question and not leaving until the question is answered.

Contact hsalamanca@afsc.org or krutledge@afsc.org to RSVP