

BIBLES
BADGES
BUSINESS

Dayton, Ohio Forum

America is Better: Bibles, Badges and Business for Immigration Reform

Monday, March 14, 2016
6:30 - 8:30 p.m. EST

Join us for a panel of local city, faith, law enforcement, and business voices who will discuss the value that immigrants bring to their communities and the need for broad immigration reform.

Event Speakers:

Richard Biehl, Chief of Police, Dayton

Matt Joseph, City Commissioner, Dayton

Kathleen Kersh, Immigration Attorney, Advocates for Basic Legal Equality, Dayton

Phillip Parker, President and CEO, Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce

Dr. Carl Ruby, Senior Pastor, Central Christian Church, Springfield/Founder & Executive Director for Welcome Springfield

Additional speakers may be added

University of Dayton
Kennedy Union Room 241
300 College Park,
Dayton, OH, 45469

(For campus map, please see map.udayton.edu)

This event is free and open to the public. Light snacks will be served.

Link to register: bit.ly/DaytonOHBBB

For more information, please contact Liz Dong: ldong@wr.org

Bibles, Badges and Business is a project of the National Immigration Forum and the National Immigration Forum Action Fund.

WWW.BBBIMMIGRATION.ORG