If I Could Change the World
Spoken Word Workshop

Saturday, April 1, 2017
9:30am to 5:00pm at
American Friends Service Committee
4405 Gillham Rd., KCMO

Increase Your Spoken Word Performance Skills And Your Ability And Power To Speak Out For A Better Community And World!

The American Friends Service Committee invites high school-aged youth interested in spoken word poetry who also want to speak out to help make our community and world better places to live to a day-long spoken word poetry workshop.

Youth will have the opportunity to create new poems, refine their writing, practice performance of their work and receive mentoring and constructive feedback from at least four spoken word poets and other youth. The workshop is conducted in collaboration with The Writers Place and spoken word artists.

Students who participate in the workshop are invited to perform their work at a Kickoff Performance on Saturday, April 8, 5:00 to 7:00pm at The Writers Place and to perform at the Troost Festival and other venues.

To reserve a place in the workshop contact us at afskc@afsc.org or 816 931-5256. Participants under 18 years of age are required to bring a completed parent permission form available online at http://bit.ly/SpokenWordPermission
