

September 16, 2020

Dear Speaker Pelosi, Leader McCarthy, Chairwoman Lowey, Ranking Member Granger, Chairwoman Roybal-Allard, and Ranking Member Fleischmann; Leader McConnell, Minority Leader Schumer, Chairman Shelby, Vice Chairman Leahy, Chairwoman Capito, and Ranking Member Tester:

The undersigned organizations write to urge you to oppose any anomalies or any other funding mechanism that would increase funding for U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) in a Fiscal Year 2021 Continuing Resolution, including the anomaly requested for CBP by the Office of Management and Budget. The consequence of a Continuing Resolution - which continues Fiscal Year 2020's astronomical funding levels for CBP and ICE - will be harmful and deadly for countless immigrants, the millions who call the border region home, and people across the country now confronting armed CBP officials at political protests. Filling these agencies' coffers even higher through an anomaly or surreptitious transfer of funds would be reckless.

CBP and ICE's budgets are historically overfunded and bloated. Since the inception of the Department of Homeland Security, ICE's budget has more than doubled and CBP's has tripled. The agencies are notoriously careless with the funds Congress appropriates them. Just months ago, the Government Accountability Office found that CBP violated the Purpose Clause of the Anti-Deficiency Act by spending money appropriated by Congress for humanitarian aid as part of the 2019 Emergency Supplemental and using it for all-terrain vehicles, dirt bikes, and building equipment.¹ Neither CBP nor ICE needs more money, and it would be irresponsible to give more funds to agencies that repeatedly disregard Congress and fail to use their current money as required by law.

Nor should Congress reward CBP with extra funding for staffing at a time when it is using its personnel to suppress and surveil political dissent² and militarize cities without the permission or cooperation of local elected officials³ using "undisciplined, unnecessary and excessive force."⁴ Using a strained reading of the law that a federal judge recently referred to as “poppycock,” the Department of Homeland Security has been deploying border patrol agents to interview arriving asylum seekers, a policy that requires recently traumatized asylum seekers to recount their past persecution to armed officers in order to even get a shot at an asylum hearing.⁵ Recently, CBP has even been caught using funds to create a dramatized depiction of imaginary political pulp violence intended to stir up fear and nativism.⁶

CBP and ICE must urgently be reined in, which requires fewer taxpayer dollars and more guardrails and restrictions on the use of funding. Now is the time to hold these agencies accountable to their appropriated budgets by rejecting any anomalies or other mechanisms that would increase their funding and instead investing taxpayer dollars to increase community well-being and rebuild from the pandemic’s catastrophic effects.
