Walking from Newark Penn Station

Exit the train station through the main exit, just past the information booth. Once you exit, walk across the lanes of waiting cars, bearing left, until you reach Market Street (the Station is between Market & Raymond Blvd). Go right on Market. Continue on Market all the way to 89 Market Street. You will cross streets Broad, Halsey and Washington Streets before reaching 89 Market. Look for the call box to ring for entry, to the right of the doors. Follow the signs to the elevator. We are on the 6th floor.

Driving

From Garden State Parkway: Take Exit 145. Follow signs for route 280 East. Stay in right hand lanes when 280 forks near Newark following signs for NJ Turnpike. Just past fork, take exit for "Martin Luther King Boulevard." Turn right at bottom of exit onto ML King Boulevard. Proceed straight through 2 lights to Central Avenue. (St. Michael's OLD Hospital is on the left corner.) Turn left onto Central Avenue. Take Central to 3rd light - Halsey Street - and turn right onto Halsey Street. Proceed 9 blocks. Turn right onto Market Street. Proceed one and a half blocks to 89 Market Street (on the right side of the street). For parking, see below.

From New Jersey Turnpike: Take Exit 15W and follow signs for Route 280 West. From 280 West, take Exit for Route 21 - Newark. Upon exiting, proceed straight by passing turns for 21 North and South until you come to Broad Street. Turn left onto Broad Street. Take Broad Street about ¼ mile to Washington Park. Turn right at light at end of the Park onto Washington Place. Take first left on to Halsey Street. Proceed 10 blocks on Halsey to Market Street. Turn right onto Market Street. Proceed one and a half blocks to 89 Market Street (on the right side of the street).

Parking:

Go one more block along Market Street, turn left on University Street, left onto Court and then left on Washington Street. There are parking lots along Washington Street. You can also stay on Halsey St for parking.
