

The suggestion that Israel faces an existential threat from Iran is "hyperbolic nonsense...My concern is the escalating rhetoric from all sides poses a danger in itself."

— James Zogby

The Crisis in the Gulf: Iran, the US, and Israel

Part of a statewide tour by

Dr. James Zogby

president of the Arab-American Institute

Tuesday, March 20, 7:00 p.m.

Waveland Hall, Plymouth Congregational Church, 4126 Ingersoll, Des Moines

A lecturer and scholar on Middle East issues, U.S.-Arab relations, and the history of the Arab American community, Dr. Zogby appears frequently on television and radio. A regular guest on all the major network news programs and a featured blogger on The Huffington Post, he is the author of several books including Arab Voices and What Arabs Think: Values, Beliefs and Concerns.

Dr. Zogby has testified before U.S. House and Senate committees, has been guest speaker on a number of occasions in the Secretary's Open Forum at the U.S. Department of State, and has addressed the United Nations and other international forums. He is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

Free & open to the public and accessible to all. Sponsors include the AFSC—Middle East Peace Education Project, Catholic Peace Ministry, Des Moines Ecumenical Committee for Peace, Methodist Federation for Social Action, Plymouth Peace Committee, and Veterans for Peace.

For more info, contact Kathleen McQuillen at 515-274-4851, ext. 22 or KMquillen@afsc.org.