A NEW PATH TOWARD HUMANE IMMIGRATION POLICY

UN NUEVO CAMINO HACIA UNA POLITICA MIGRATORIA HUMANA

We believe that compassionate, humane, and effective reform of the immigration system must be grounded in the following principles/Creemos que cualquier reforma migratoria que pretiende ser humana, compasiva y eficaz debe ser arraigado en la siguiente:

- Develop humane economic and environmental policies to reduce forced migration.

Promover e impulsar el desarrollo económico sustentable que respete el medio ambiente y reduce la migración forzada

- Protect the labor rights of all workers.

Protégé a los derechos laborales de las y los trabajadores

- Develop a quick path to legal permanent residency and a clear path to citizenship.

Desarrolla un camino rápido a la residencia y un camino claro a la ciudadanía

- Respect the civil and human rights of immigrants.

Respetar a los derechos civiles y humanos de las y los migrantes

- Demilitarize the U.S.-Mexico border and its surrounding communities.

Desmilitarización de la frontera Estados Unidos-México

- Make family and loved ones' reunification a top priority.

La unidad familiar y de seres queridos debe de ser fundamental

- Ensure that immigrants have access to public services.

Asegurar acceso a servicios sociales para migrantes y refugiados

LEGISLATION THAT FULLY ADDRESSES THE NEEDS OF OUR COMMUNITIES MUST:

PARA ABORDAR LOS NECESIDADES DE NUESTROS COMUNIDADES, PROPUESTAS DE LEY TIENEN QUE:

- Create a clear, inclusive, transparent, and timely roadmap to permanent residency and citizenship for all 11 million undocumented immigrants in the U.S.— without exception.
- Prioritize reunification for loved ones and families; eliminate decades-long backlogs in processing family visa applications as well as five- and ten-year bars on family applications for family members who were deported; and create avenues to bring back to the U.S. people who have been deported.
- Respect the human, civil, and labor rights of all immigrants by ending detention and deportation, providing full access to public services and benefits, and ensuring immigrants' rights and dignity are respected in places of work.

BIRDDOGGING

- Holding elected officials accountable once they are elected is important. Help us get them on record this month.
- Town halls and local events are an opportunity to lift our concerns for members of Congress and within our communities. Visit townhallprojects.com to find more details.

Sample Question: Immigrant communities saw increased targeting under the Trump administration through the ending of various programs that protected against detention and deportation and increased surveillance of immigrant neighborhoods, detention and deportation. The majority of [insert your community here] support a path to citizenship. Will you support immigration reform that provides a road to citizenship, protects workers and keeps families together?

- Also feel free to craft your own using examples from your own life or community, or from information about the candidate.
